OBJECTION TO BILL OF COSTS

TO THE CLERK OF COURTS:

Plaintiff files an objection to the bill of costs filed by the defendants on August 22, 2005, and in support thereof, makes the following averments:

1. Plaintiff filed the underlying lawsuit in good faith,
2. Plaintiff asserts that said lawsuit had merit and was not filed improvidently,
3. The Court dismissed the motion for summary judgment filed by the defendants, and
4. The payment of the bill of costs filed by the defendants would cause a hardship on the plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff requests that the Court dismiss the demand for payment of costs made by the defendants.

Respectfully submitted,
